DON'T READ THIS

MANNAHOUSE

You're a curious individual. I thought you might read this if I told you not to. But don't read any more, because the rest of this leaflet could affect you more than you want it to. Maybe you're satisfied with the way things are in your life. Continuing to read this could really change a lot of that.

You're still interested, aren't you? Well if you want to keep reading, then you have to read the whole thing. You can't put this down until you are finished, no matter what happens. Well, here it is.

We all like to feel good about ourselves. But many times we don't. Very often we do things we wish we hadn't. We try and forget about it, but we know we've really messed up. Sometimes what we do really hurts other people, and at times we even hurt ourselves. Let's face it, we all blow it. Some of what we call "mistakes" God calls sin. "God! Sin! What are you, some kind of religious nut?" Don't forget our agreement. You're almost at the halfway point. Keep reading.

Come on, let's be honest, we've all sinned. No one is perfect, except for one person, God. He's perfect and we're not. Yet deep down we all would like to spend eternity with Him in heaven. But how can that possibly happen, if we are all imperfect and He's not?

Well here's the news that could change your life. God has provided a way which you've heard about already, probably many times. So listen carefully because I don't think you've really understood it yet. Keep reading! Come on! Only 1/3 to go.

Remember back when you started reading this leaflet, how I told you not to. Even though you were told not to do it, you kept on reading. You see, that natural desire to do what you want to, whether it is good for you or not, sometimes gets you to do things you shouldn't do. Now in this case, it's not going to hurt you. But other times it has. Let me repeat what I said before. Some of what we call mistakes, God calls sin, and sin is what has kept you from getting to know God.

Here's the solution that could change your life. God is perfect, we're not. We've sinned, and yet He loved us enough to become a man. That's right. I'm talking about Jesus Christ. I know you've heard He died for your sins, but you've probably never really understood what that means. If you will stop trusting in the good things you can do to get you into heaven, and completely trust in what Jesus Christ did on the cross, you can have an incredible relationship with God. Jesus was perfect, and yet He died for each one of our sins. We should have hung on that cross, not Him. He loves you, He died for you, and He wants you to be with Him forever. Pray and ask Him to come into your life.
