THE PROBLEM

MANNAHOUSE

M

ost of us face many problems every day. Some seem small, while others are overwhelming. There is one problem, however, that you are facing right now, that makes all others seem insignificant. Unless the correct solution is found, all of your hopes, dreams and ambitions will one day be shattered in despair.

We can only understand the problem if we first consider the all-Holy God who made the universe. He is totally pure, completely righteous, and unwavering in His standards of morality. Though God created mankind to have a relationship with Him, this is not possible, because we have all done things wrong and are thus not perfect.

We often fall short of the perfection of character that belongs only to God.¹ How many times have we known what we should do, and yet have chosen not to do it?

The problem becomes clearer as we consider the following descriptions of God and man, taken from the Bible:

GOD IS

Perfect . . . Matt.5:48
GoodPs.106:1
HolyIsa.6:3
Righteous . . Jer.12:1
FairI Pet.1:17
Truthful . . Heb.6:18
LovingI Jn.4:8

MANKIND IS

Sinful Rom.3:23
Not Good . . Rom.3:12
UnholyII Tim.3:2
Unrighteous . .Isa.64:6
Unjust . . . Eccles. 7:20
DeceitfulJer.17:9
SelfishII Tim.3:2

Sinful human beings could never live with an all-holy God, not even for a second, because the environment God lives in is totally pure.² Humans would not be able to live where God is, unless a solution could somehow be found to the problem of their sinfulness. In light of the problem just described, how do you personally hope to go to Heaven?

Friend, unless you discover the Bible's clear answer to this, the most major of life's problems, you will not go to heaven when you die. You will instead face an eternity apart from all that is good.

The answer is not:

joining a religion.³
going to church.⁴
doing the best you can.⁵
keeping the 10 commandments.⁶
believing in God.⁷
being good.⁸
asking forgiveness.⁹
being sorry for your sins.¹⁰
