

- Accept that Jesus died on the cross for your sins.¹
- Ask Him to forgive you for your sins.²
- Allow Him to come and live inside of you.³
- Let Him be the Lord and God of your life.⁴
- With His life inside of you, turn away from whatever God and the Bible calls sin.⁵

Not only will you begin a dynamic relationship with the God who made you, but you will become a part of the greatest family that ever existed, the family of God.

WHO AM I?

You want to be different, and yet you want to fit in. You want to be unique and special, but you don't want to be weird and left out. Did you know that the desire to be different and yet be a part of a group was placed in you by God?

But is it possible to be different for the wrong reasons? Recently a man confessed to having personally murdered over 300 people. There are very few people in history who have ever done that. But what a price to pay in order to be unique. Actually being bad and rebellious isn't even unique any more. If you watch the news, it seems a lot of people are doing that.

If you really want to be different, then do what's right. Did you know that you can do what's right and be unique at the same time? Jesus did it. He was right in everything He did, and yet He was also the most radical person who ever lived.

Today He has hundreds of millions of followers all over the world, and I'm one of them. I don't mind being different than other people because I've found out why I'm on this earth. Have you?

Do you go from one thing to the next, never being fully satisfied? Dope won't satisfy you, videos won't, alcohol won't, sex won't, rock music won't, sports won't, TV won't, movies won't, money won't. Then what will? Only one thing - being different and yet fitting in. Be different from the people who are going nowhere. Be a part of God's plan for your life. He made you for a specific purpose. Do you want to know what it is? Listen carefully.

He wants you to spend eternity with Him. Can you imagine being with the all-powerful God who made the stars, the galaxies, and the entire universe? Not only does He want you to be with Him forever, but He wants to live inside of you right now. Years ago I invited Jesus into my life, and I can tell you for certain that He satisfies. He will give you the purpose in life you've been looking for. Just following the crowd will lead you nowhere. But following Jesus will make your life really exciting and meaningful.

I know you've heard He died for your sins, but you've probably never really understood what that means. If you will stop trusting in the good things you can do to get you into heaven and completely trust in what Jesus did for you by dying on the cross, you can have an incredible relationship with God.

If you would like to begin this relationship with Jesus Christ right now here's what you need to do!
